COST OF SPORTS TOO HIGH.

The Mobile Register thinks that the price the American public is paying for sports is too high,—in fact far mere than they get out of the game. The Echo is very much inclined to agree with its Alabama contemporary.

Commenting on the willingness of the public to be mulcted the Register says:

"Recurring to the Babe Ruth contract, under which he will receive the sum of $160,000 for a few months' work during the two-year period covered by the contract, we raise the question as to whether the American people are not paying too much for their sports. Ruth gets a bigger salary than the president of the United States, and he wanted more than his contract calls for. Is Ruth, or is any baseball-player, worth $80,000 a year even to the diamond fans of this country?

"The American people seem to be goofy when it comes to some things that enter into American life. They will holler their heads off about a few dollars in taxes even where an increase in taxes may be necessary to pay a decent citizen a decent salary for a decent public service, but when it comes to sports, well, that seems to be another story.

"They will pay a prize ring plugugly a million dollars to prance around the ring for a few minutes; they are willing to be taxed to allow a cunning and clever Frenchman to come to America for a few acrobatic stunts, to skin cate and dance jigs; they are willing to pay almost anything to anybody in the name of sports;—and yet is there any real, hones-to-goodness sport in this highly comercial lized and intensely dramatized business it spectacular performances?

"There are hundred of boys in this country who can play as good baseball as Babe Ruth, hundreds of boys who can lick Tunney, or Sharkey, or even Jack Dempsey, at this age of his life, and Dempsey is the only real fighter we have broduced since Sullivan went under the ropes. Why should the American people by overtaxed to pile huge profits into the pockets of clever promoters who use and capitalize the names of outstanding ball players and pugilists to stir the public imagination?

"There is no reason for it except that beautiful credulity which always has made it possible for the Harnums to get by. It is all very silly and we ought to see if we cannot work out some scheme to rationalize our sports, and cut jown the cost of sports."

ANOTHER GUESS COMING.

Your Uncle Henry Ford is absolutely certain that the big monied intérests of Wall Street are back of the nation's bootleggers. Well, this is one time The Echo is not in complete agreement with the gas wagon manufacturer, and will so continue until he furnishes proof to that effect.

A bill levying a tax of one per cent on the gross receipts of chain stores has been passed by the Texas legislature.

Maybe is we live long enough there are two things we shall withers: The passage of the tariff bill and the final adjournment of our State legislature.

As remarked in these columns two or three weeks since, The Eche thinks the Hon. Lester C. Franklin announced his candidacy for governor a bit too soon.

The price of flour continues to tumble, being quoted at $6.60 per barrel at wholesale. Some folks can remember when they had to dig up the World War.

The Echo has no sympathy to throw away on cants of any description, and least of all those who have suffered paralysis of their lower limbs through dringing "Jake," a poisonous concoction which has claimed hundreds of victims throughout the country during the last week or

QUIT AND COME HOME.

In commenting on the passage last week of a resolution by the State senate to adjourn the current legislative session on the 29th of this month, the Magnolia Gazette said:

"In common with what we believe to be is a large majority of people of Mississippi who have been watching the antics of this legislature, we have just about despaired of it accomplishing anything that will prove beneficial to the state.

"The lawmakers have been in session now ten weeks. Their record during this period is an absolute blank. Up to this time, they have failed to reach even a temporary solution to any of the great problems which are pressing for legislative consideration.

"The legislature seems to be utterly without plan or program for remedying the deplorable financial condition which has existed for many years.

"Yes; quit and come home, boys. We, the people, will struggle along for the next two years. Perhaps your failure will result beneficially to Mississippi after all. Perhaps it will impress upon us the importance and necessity of selecting qualified men to go to the senate—men of ability and courage—who will know what to do when they go to Jackson January 1932, and will have the intestinal fortitude to do it when they get there."

The Gazette is quite right in surmizing that an equitable compensation lew—W. the failure of the present legislature membership will result in benefit to the State, as the people will be more particular in the selection of their senators and representatives in the future.

There are a few men of outstanding ability in the present membership of the two houses, and they were capable of accomplishing some damages has been a curse to both good for the State, but, alas, they have lacked the courage to lay aside their partisanship and Edward M. Livingston, attorney. try to enact the constructive legislation their State needs so badly; therefore the blame for in the progress of industry.—Stanthe state of affairs at the capital rests evenly ford E. Morse, attorney, Gulfport. more heavily on their shoulders than on the shoulders of the pee-wee members of the senate and house. The people had a right to look for ton, Professor Economics, University and expect the former to render good and patriotic service such as they were capable of, believing they would rise above factionalism, while on the other hand nothing was either looked for nor expected from the latter bunch -of

DELINQUENT POLL TAX PAYERS.

The number of names appearing on the de- damage suit lawyer will still be perlinquent poll tax lists published throughout the mitted to capitalize the injuries and State during the past month show a considerable deaths of workmen for his own priincrease over past years, and it is a reflection on the intelligence and patriotism of thousands of long run he is the only one who real-Mississippi citizens, both men and women.

Just what the Hattiesburg American thinks burg American. of the delinquents is expressed in the following clipping from a recent issue of that excellent

"The lists of persons delinquent in poll taxes being carried in the official organs of the several counties of the state at this season of the year speaks most positively of the indifference to the duties of citizenship specially diagnosed as one of the most serious ills of government.

"It is a poor bargain a man drives when he prefers to let his franchise lapse for the price of $2.00. For this sum he yields the privilege of voting on bond issues and tax levies affecting the progress of his community, the value of his property, his yearly tax dues and the cost of living in the community and state. For $2.00 he forfeits a voice in the selection of officials who will make our laws, enforce and execute them, and administer the fiscal affairs of the various branches and divisions of govern-

"The ballot is the means by which our democracy is to perpetuate its government of the people, by the people and for the people. The indifference to the power of the individual ballot and the responsibility of citizenship which it implies explains many of the ills under which we labor, of which we complain and which stand in the way of progress but which thousands in Mississippi counties and about 50 per cent of the egistered voters of Forest do not regard as worth the sum of the poll tax."

WHAT PRICE POLITICS!

It is a pity that Governor Bilbo is content to $18.00 to pay for a barrel, but that was during pursue the course he has followed with regard to the welfare of the 2,437 inmates of the State hospital for the insane. For several years past that institution has been over-crowded—indeed its normal facilities of accommodation are for CHIROPRACTOR AND people who are victims of an appetite for intoxi-only 1,600 patients, and yet the governor stands pat in his determination to veto any appropriation made by the legislature for the completion Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday—of the half-finished building in Rankin county. BILBO AND OBLIVION.

Governor Bilbo has threatened political oblitical oblivion is not awaiting him. He has had more luck than any man in the State's history in escaping political oblivion, and his mind is wandering far afield if he thinks fickle Dame Luck will favor him much longer.

GENERAL ENDORSE MIXIN

We have gone on record to do everything possible to secure the passage of a workmen's compensation law.—Holt Ross, President, Mississip-State Federation of Labor.

It is indeed a shame that four states still throw the burden of care for victims of accidents on themselves or charity.—American Federation of Labor Convention, 1929. (Mississipri is one of the four.)

The state will never receive its share of industry until a workmen's compessation law has been enacted.— J. B. Bishop, Great Southern Lumber Co., Pinola. In my opinion one of the things that would help Mississippi as much as anything else would be an equitable and adequate workmen's compensation law.—H. S. Weston, President, Weston Lumber Co., Logtown. I think there is no other item of industrial legislation so much needed for the benefit of all residents of the state.-F. A. Mullett, General

I am in hopes that your association in conjunction with other agrencies will be able to establish an equitable act in our legal structure. B. M. Stevens, President, C. H. Stevens Co., Richton.

Manager, Long Bell Lumber Co.,

Both labor and capital should get together to seek the enactment of There is nothing more detrimental to the welfare and industrial growth and progress of Mississippi than the lack of a compensation act. -Leo W. Seal, Hancock County Bank, Bay St. Louis. The present system of suits for labor and industry in Mississippi.-The adoption of a reasonable compensation law is absolutely essential

Every state, whether highly inlustralized or not, needs a workmen's compensation act.—Grady Guy-

The empolyer, the employee, the panker, the businessman, the lawyer and the student all join in endorsement of a workmen's compensation law for Mississippi. A bill has been ntroduced in the legislature by Senator North of Yazoo County. It remains for the legislators to say whether social justice will be served and both industry and labor in Mississippi protected, or whether the vate profit; for regardless of the success or failure of the suit, in the ly gets anything out of it.-Hatties-

IT'S DIFFERENT NOW.

Henry Ford recently said: "Money in itself is nothing. It is merely a medium of exchange." Mr. Ford probably had a different notion a few years back when he needed to borrow money to keep his business going.—Sioux City Tribune.

Hell-What It Is and Where It Is' was announced as the subject of a sermon preached by a revivalist at Hattiesburg a few nights since. It was not our privilege to be present and hear the sermon, therefore The Echo cannot enlighten its readers as to what the reverend gentleman's explanation amounted to, as much as we would like to. Lots of folks are not fully satisfied in their own minds as to the exact nature of the place referred to by the revivalist who seems to know so much and it would be a relief to them to have some definite knowledge on the subject.

Chevrolet announces

ANEW

SERVICE POLICY

The Chevrolet Motor Company and its dealers are pleased to announce a new service policy—one of the most liberal ever offered on a low-priced automobile.

Put into force as a written agreement given to the purchaser by the Chevrolet dealer when the car is delivered—it offers the following provisions:

Levery Chevrolet owner receives his car from the dealer in perfect condition -thoroughly lubricated, properly adjusted, and ready to operate efficiently from the first mile of ownership.

2 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free inspection and adjustment of his car at the end of the first 500 miles of usage.

Bevery Chevrolet owner is entitled to free inspection of his car every 1000 miles thereafter, so long as the car is in operation.

4 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free replacement of any part which may prove defective in workmanship or material, within the terms of Chevrolet's standard warranty. This includes both parts and labor.

5 Provision number 4 will be carried out by any Chevrolet dealer in the United States. As a result, the Chevrolet owner may travel to any part of the country, with assurance that the guarantee on materials and workmanship will remain in force.

This new policy constitutes proof of Chevrolet's high quality—for such liberal provisions could only be made in connection with a car built of fine materials to exacting standards of workmanship.

Back of this policy, and assuring its successful operation, is one of the most complete and efficient service organizations in the world.

There are more than 10,000 Authorized Chevrolet Dealer Service Stations in the United States alone. Each employs skilled mechanics thoroughly trained at Chevrolet Service Schools. Each has specially designed tools and machinery developed exclusively for Chevrolet service work. And each has on hand, at all times, an adequate stock of genuine Chevrolet replacement parts.

Chevrolet's flat-rate charges, including both parts and labor, are the lowest in the industry on many sérvice operations!

In considering the purchase of a lowpriced automobile, think what this service means—in terms of lasting satisfaction, as well as in increased economy.

→ N this Company there is reason for the respect with which the office boy is treated. The ideal business organization is one where, when an officer of the Company leaves there is a general advance along the line. A new office boy is hired and the organization is again complete.

It is toward such an ideal that Mississippi Power Company is striving. Our employees have before them constantly the example of those who are now directing the Company's activities. They know that there is a clear track ahead for those who display ability, industry, and loyalty. For those who show unusual aptitude in any department, outstanding ability in visioning the future of directing present activities, there are no locked doors. Employees in the ranks today will be directing heads a few years hence.

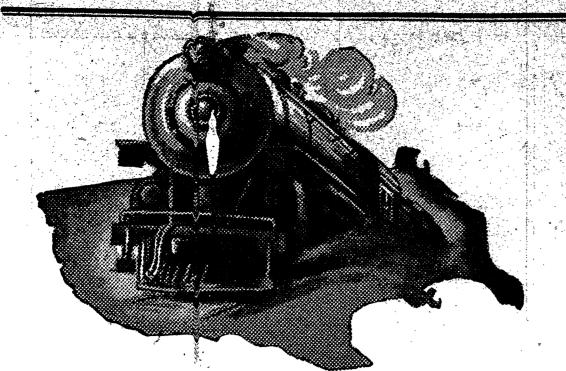

> Strict adherence to this policy of advancement from within the ranks has welded the employees of Mississippi Power Company into one great family, bound together by ambition, mutual respect, and loyalty to the Company and the public it serves.

The Iron Horse of Progress

In order to appreciate the railroads to the fullest extent, the public must know them as bringers of civilization and progress; must be actively conscious of what they are and what they are doing for this country and all its citizens.

Far-reaching, all-penetrating, dependable arteries of travel and transportation spreading throughout the land; pioneers in promoting industrial development and sectional progress; consumers of vast quantities of the country's major products; vital factors in all activities of trade and commerce. That's what the railroads are.

Furnishing with increasing efficiency the most essential form of transportation service in existence; keeping abreast----often ahead----of the times by spending huge sums in improving their properties to meet the public demand;* paying in taxes several hundred million dollars annually in support of governmental and other public requirements. That's what the railroads

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad last week attained its eightieth birthday. From a little strip of track 185 miles long, three-quarters of a century ago, it has grown progressively with the South until to-day it operates over 5,000 miles of road in thirteen states. Such a long record of service and usefulness testifies as to what the L. & N. is and what it is doing in helping the territory it serves. And, as it enters its eightyfirst year, it hopes to be of even greater value by providing better and better service. To this end, it requests the continued cooperation of its host of patrons and friends.

COMPARE VALUES BEFORE YOU BUY AN AUTOMOBILE

Low charges for distribution of the new Ford save you at least $50 to $75 in addition to the many savings in making the car

THESE are days when every dollar counts. The period of reckless spending is over. People are going back to the good old-fashioned principles of thrift and economy. Value is again being carefully considered.

Nowhere is this more important than in the selection of an automobile. For the purchase of a car represents a considerable investment. It should not be decided on hurriedly, but only after analyzing every important factor that concerns cost, value and performance. The time to do this is before buying; not afterward when it is too late.

On THE basis of cost, performance and the actual comparative worth of every part, the new Ford is a value far above the price you pay. It is made of better materials and with greater care and accuracy because of the recognized efficiency and economy of Ford manufacturing methods.

The value of these methods is known and understood by millions of people. It is not generally realized, however, that these same principles of efficiency and economy are applied also to every step in the distribution of the Ford car. The low cost of selling, financing time payments, etc., means a direct saving to you of at least $50 to $75 in addition to the money saved by Ford economies in making the car. There are definite reasons why this is so.

(1) The Ford dealer does business on a smaller. margin of profit because of the greater number of cars he sells. His discount or commission is the lowest of any automobile dealer. The difference in your favor, ranging from 25% to nearly 50%, comes right off the price you pay for the car.

(2) No expensive extra equipment is needed when you buy a Ford. The car leaves the factory ready for use. The f.o.b. price includes a Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield and an extra steel-spoke wheel, in addition to four Houdaille double-acting shock absorbers and fully enclosed four-wheel brakes. Any accessories you may wish for your individual taste are sold considerably below the usual prices.

None of these charges for selling, financing or accessories is marked up or increased to cover a high trade-in allowance on a used car.

Get all the facts, therefore, before you buy and figure out just what you are getting for your automobile dollars. Go beyond the f.o.b. price and find out how much more you pay the dealer than the dealer pays at the factory. Analyze the used-car allowance. Compare all charges—item for item value for value.

WHEN you do this you will have a new appreciation of what the Ford Motor Company and Ford dealers are doing to keep down the cost of Ford cars. You will also know why it is possible to put so much real value into the new Ford and still retain the low price. The money you pay goes for value in the car. It is not wasted in excessive costs in manufacturing or selling.

In the church of Our Lady of the Gulf, very Rev. A. J. Gmelch, arranged a special Service as a Reparation to Almighty God for the insults and outrages committed against Him in the land of the "Godless." A High Mass was offered a 7:30 Wednesday, St. Joseph's Day, the day set apart by the Pope for prayer for Russia. This Mass was sung by the children in the grammar grades of St. Joseph's Academy, with the intention that the voices and hearts of these innocent children may give to Almighty God the praise and adoration that Russia

DAIRYING INDUSTRY

The northern section of Mississipterritory has resulted. An appropriation of a half-million dollars was used last year to make South Mississippi free of the cattle tick. The work has met with gratifying success. This section is now also tick-free, and live stock and dairying activities are just beginning to grow. The gains shown by the above figures represent the state at large, but there is no question that the largest proportionate increase in value has been made right here in erty under the provisions of said deed this section, where the pesky and of trust for the purpose of raising pestilerous cattle tick is now a thing of the past. Under present condigether with the expenses of selling location, soil, climate, water and long pasturage season, we expect to give North Mississippi a run for its money in the development of live stock and dairying industries.-McComb Jour-
